

Intergenerational Poverty Advisory Committee - Minutes

Tuesday, March 31, 2015

1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Department of Workforce Services – 1385 South State Street, Salt Lake City

Committee Members: Judge Paul Lyman, William Duncan, Joe Piccolo, Elizabeth Garbe (for Bill Crim), Natalie Parker (for Liz Zentner)

Commission Members: Casey Cameron (for Jon Pierpont), Lana Stohl (for Ann Williamson), Emily Wetherley (for Dawn Marie Rubio), Sheila Walsh-McDonald (for David Patton)

Excused: Bill Crim, Liz Zentner, Douglas Goldsmith, Renee Olesen, Rabbi Ilana Schwartzman

Staff Support: Tracy Gruber, Jessica Staker

Attendees: Matthew Weinstein, Mary Beth Vogel-Ferguson, Tricia Davis, Lisa Wisham, Karla Aguirre, Greg Paras, Carrie Mayne, Steve Leyba, Tamera Kohler, Nate McDonald

AGENDA	DISCUSSION	RECOMMENDATIONS/ACTION
Welcome and Introductions	Welcome and Introductions (Bishop Burton) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Approval of December 2nd Committee meeting minutes 	Joe Piccolo motioned to approve the minutes as written. Judge Paul Lyman seconded. Motion carried.
Salt Lake County Kearns Place-Based Initiative	Salt Lake County Kearns Place-Based Initiative (Karen Crompton, Salt Lake County) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Karen was unable to attend the meeting. • Place-based – determining where the challenges are in a community and how to address them. • DWS staff discussed how the NGK pilot will be aligned and integrated in the County’s Kearns place-based initiative. 	It was recommended that a future meeting include discussion of agency programs, funding streams and limitations of federal rules.

AGENDA	DISCUSSION	RECOMMENDATIONS/ACTION
Five- and Ten-Year Plan	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Committee discussed ensuring services and efforts within the community are not duplicated and systems are aligned. • Agency representatives provided information on programs and pilots developed to address intergenerational poverty. Five- and Ten-Year Plan (Tracy Gruber) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The plans will be released publicly today at 4:00. • Bishop Burton suggested the Committee create reports on our progress and where challenges are. • The Committee will be responsible for presenting the strategy and best practices to achieve the goals in the plan to the Commission at its October 20th meeting. • Judge Lyman pointed out the report needs more solutions, not just goals. • Natalie Parker, from the PTA, recommended making this initiative about people, not data, when taking it to the community. • Emily Wetherley, from Juvenile Courts, pointed out the importance of making the data visual using graphs, charts, etc. • Karla Aguirre mentioned the importance of aligning, not just collaborating. 	Creating public awareness of this issue and what our alternatives are, e.g. people dying on the street.
Implementing Five- and Ten-Year Plan	Implementing Five- and Ten-Year Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Topics to Cover <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bishop Burton suggested the Advisory Committee members divide into workgroups based on the four areas of child well-being. • Advisory Committee's Role 	William Duncan recommended we come to our next meeting prepared to discuss messaging and communication of intergenerational poverty to the community.

AGENDA	DISCUSSION	RECOMMENDATIONS/ACTION
Public Comment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The Committee members discussed the need to develop strategies, ensuring proper communication of the plan and role they can play in distributing the plan. ○ William Duncan recommended that the Advisory Committee provide names of organizations that should receive the plan and suggested that some Advisory Committee members might be interested in presenting the plan to those groups. Public Comment	DWS will prepare communications packets to distribute to Advisory Committee members so they can educate community partners about intergenerational poverty.